THIS WEEK IN BASEBALL

On Tuesday evening Little League scores were Cubs 2 Eagles 1; Rochester 8 Blues 7; Greens 11 Reds 5. No games were played on Thursday because of the concert at Old Rochester Regional in which many of the Little League players were involved.

May 30th the Eagles and Greens played in a make-up game which was rained out earlier. The game went seven innings and the Eagles edged the Greens by an 8 to 7 score in a hectic battle.

Going into this week's games the standings are as follows:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Cubs	4	0	1000
Eagles	4	1	800
Greens	3	1	750
Rochester	2	3	400
Blues	0	4	000
Reds	0	4	000

The Mattapoisett Sports Committee will cooperate fully with any such group.

The Pony League team lost twice this past week to Exchange Club and Jimmy O'Conner's Tavern. They have a young team and are playing in a fast league but experience gained this season will help next year when they will have a veteran team.

The Little League could use umpires. Any man, with some baseball experience, is welcome. Volunteers please contact Oliver La France at 8-2518.

The Sports Committee wishes to thank Mr. John Field for using his equipment in clearing the land back of the backstop. Also, Mr. Joseph Sylvia for allowing us to do this clean up operation which enables the ball teams to find baseballs which were lost in the tall grass.

FELLOWSHIP COURT WHIST

Friday, May 29th, the Fireside Fellowship of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church sponsored a public Court Whist at 7:30 P.M. in the parish hall. Ten tables were in play with Earle Wilson as high scorer with 206 points, Mrs. Allen Sherman and Harry Locke, second with 205 points each. The winner of the door prize was Mr. Norman Roylance. Everyone at the whist received a prize.

Cakes were auctioned off at the whist party in the style of a Chinese Auction. Mr. Roylance was auctioneer.

The Fellowship wishes to extend its thanks

VETERAN COACH OFFERS SERVICE

John Raphael of River Road, Mattapoisett has offered his services to the Capeway Colt League team. He has played on many top notch semi-pro teams in this area and managed many winning teams. He played for the Mattapoisett Town Team, Humphries Milk A. C., the Pairpoints, Mohawks, Monte Pio and for the senior American Legion team in the Cape Cod League.

He helped manage the Twist Drill when they were a power in Southeastern Massachusetts and many local athletes who became stars owe much to him. He will be of great assistance to Lin Roberts who will call another practice Thursday afternoon at the Old Rochester High field.

All positions on the team are open and any boy of Colt League age is welcome to try out for the team. Registrations can be obtained from any of the coaches or Ed Valladoa, Route 6, Mattapoisett. Opening game of the season for the Capeways will be Monday night at the High School field.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

A meeting of the Rochester Woman's Club will be held this Wednesday evening, June 3, at 8:00 P.M. All chairmen and members who will work on the bazaar and smorgasbord on June 25 are urged to attend this important meeting.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors and officers held at the home of Mrs. Ethel Gary, president, on New Bedford Road, various changes in the by-laws were discussed and it was noted that new copies of these changes which have been voted should be printed. Various phases of the program for the coming season were discussed and the program committee will meet early in June.

Applications for the Raymond C. Hartley Scholarship awards from Rochester seniors were considered and recipients were Miss Janice Lawrence of Hartley Road, first; and Miss Catherine Sousa of Braley Hill Road, second. Miss Lawrence will graduate this June from the Old Rochester Regional High School and Miss Sousa from Sacred Hearts Academy in Fairhaven. Awards will be given out at the annual supper and bazaar on June 25. The scholarships are awarded solely on the basis of the highest marks among the applications received by the scholarship committee.

A meeting was held this past week at the home of Mrs. Hazel Raymond on Rounseville Road for members to sew on articles for the bazaar. Material is available for each member who would like to make an apron for the gift table. Those who are able to do so should call Mrs. Raymond or Mrs. Gary. Mrs. Ethel Gary, president, is general chairman of this annual event.

MATTAPOISETT DOG WINS IN DOG SHOW

Carl Mogilni was a happy boy Sunday when his Great Dane, Kris Kringle II, came home with 3 wins in the Framingham District Kennel Club Benched Dog show. With a first in his class, a winners dog, and best in opposite sex, he gained several points toward his championship and three trophies. Thirty-eight Danes were entered.

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE MEETING

Mrs. Minnie Tinkham was hostess Tuesday to seventeen members and one guest of Hilltop Friendship Circle. Her home, familiarly known as "The Tom Tinkham place," was beautiful, with spring flowers and shrubs decorating the exterior, and interesting hooked and braided rugs indoors. Mrs. Tinkham has completed a hooked rug project which took a year, and in which designs made by her grandchildren were worked into a covering for the front stairs.

After invocation by the chaplain, Mrs. Marjorie H. Wilson, routine business was transacted. A donation was voted to the Indian Committee in Philadelphia. Mrs. Edna L. Borden, secretary, reported on replies received to letters written since the last meeting to Senators and Congressmen, regarding H. R. 1794, which would compensate the Seneca Indian tribe for

SIXTH GRADERS VISIT ORRHS

On Thursday, May 28, the incoming seventh graders from Mattapoisett Center School, Sippican School, Marion, and Rochester Memorial School visited Old Rochester Regional High School. The students were welcomed by the principal, Mr. Donald Gavin. They were also introduced to Miss Barbara Crowe, guidance director; Miss Rosalie Tirrell and Mr. Edward Spalding, guidance counselors; Mrs. Dorothy Baker, the school librarian; and Mrs. Winifred Hartley, the school nurse. Each of these people explained their duties and the functions of their

At the end of the visitation the seventh graders were given a handbook which had been prepared by Harold Gay, assistant principal. This booklet contains information about the school rules, proper grooming, cafeteria and bus rules, and also the floor plans of the building.

STUDENT SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

The guidance department at Old Rochester Regional High School requests that anyone who would be interested in employing students either full or part-time, contact Mr. Edward Spalding, guidance counselor, at 758-3745.

This year the Guidance Department has expanded its services by including placement both before and after graduation as one of its functions. Students who are interested in obtaining either permanent or summer employment have been urged to contact their counselor.

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES HELD

Memorial Day exercises were held in Mattapoisett at the library at 2 P.M., sponsored by the Florence Eastman Post No. 280, American Legion. Robert Nunes, post commander, was master of ceremonies.

John R. Parker, secretary-treasurer of 10th District Council, American Legion, spoke on "Americanism". The prayer was given by the Rev. Frederic E. Reynard, pastor of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church. Michael Collyer, an eighth grade student at Old Rochester Regional High School, recited the Gettysburg Address. Several selections were by the Portugese American Band.

Following Mr. Parker's address, the Star Spangled Banner was played, and then the parade formed. Appropriate exercises were held at the monument on the library lawn, at the town wharf and at Cushing cemetery.

Parade marshals were Major Charles Morgan and Major George White. In line of march were American Legion members, Marion VFW, Mattapoisett Selectmen, David N. Haley, William J. Spark, Jr. and Mr. White; the Portugese American Band, all Girl Scout troops, Brownies, Boy Scout Troop 53 and Cub Scouts.

The parade disbanded at Legion Hall, Depot Street, where refreshments were served by members of the Auxiliary.

The firing squad and color guards visited all other cemeteries in town after dismissal of the parade.
